RE: DEMONSTRATION BY I.D.P.L. WORKERS AT MAIN GATE OF PARLIAMENT HOUSE

SHRI MD. SALIM (West Bengal): Sir, I had planned to put a supplementary on Question No. 183. When I was coming to the parliament House I had to stop at the main gate because it was blocked. The main gate was closed Even for, Members of Parliament. There was some demonstration by hundreds of workers belonging to IDPL who were squatting at the main gate. Some policemen were present over there and security people were also present there. Some of the MPs were supporting them. Some of the MPs were Just waiting there. I would request the Minister of parliamentary Affairs to make a statement as to what happened there and why the main gate was closed. Even the security people were not able to open the gate. The demonstrators were demanding from the Government release of funds for the revival of IDPL. Therefore, the Minister of Parliamentary Affairs should make a statement on this issue. I am also worried about what happened later on.
